STANDARD PRACTICE STATEMENT > PROCESSING

Deduction notices

Issued: XX 2021SPS 21/XX

Standard practice statements describe how the Commissioner of Inland Revenue (the Commissioner) will exercise a statutory discretion or deal with practical issues arising out of the administration of the Inland Revenue Acts.

This Standard Practice Statement (Statement) sets out Inland Revenue's power to issue a deduction notice to recover outstanding amounts of tax from a 3rd party and to provide guidance on how the Commissioner will use such notices. The Statement updates and replaces SPS 11/04 Compulsory deductions from bank accounts, which was published in Tax Information Bulletin, Vol 23, No 5 (June 2011).

All references are to the Tax Administration Act 1994 (the "TAA"), unless otherwise stated.

START DATEXX 2021REPLACES: SPS 11/04

Application

The Statement applies from the date of signing. It replaces SPS 11/04 Compulsory deductions from bank accounts, which was published in Tax Information Bulletin, Vol 23, No 5 (June 2011).

The Statement outlines the Commissioner's powers to require deductions from amounts that are payable, or will be payable to, a taxpayer who has arrears. It applies to deduction notices issued under the following enactments:

- The Tax Administration Act 1994 ("the TAA")
- Child Support Act 1991 ("the CSA")
- Gaming Duties Act 1971 ("the GDA")
- Goods and Services Tax Act 1985 (the GSTA")
- Student Loan Scheme Act 1982 ("the SLSA")

Standard practice

Summary

1. A deduction notice is an important debt collection tool for the Commissioner. The relevant legislative provisions grant the Commissioner the power to require a 3rd party to make deductions from amounts that are payable, or will become payable by that third party, to a taxpayer who has a tax liability.
2. A deduction notice may require deductions to be made by the way of lump sum or by instalments. A deduction notice will continue to apply until a deduction is made in respect of a notice requiring deduction by lump sum, or in respect to an on-going notice, until the amount required pursuant to the notice has been deducted or the notice is either revoked or withdrawn by the Commissioner.
3. Deductions made by the person are held in trust for the Crown until they are forwarded to the Commissioner. If the deduction is not made by the person, the amount required to be deducted may be recoverable by the Commissioner from the person as if it were tax payable by that person (in respect of deduction notices issued for child support banks are excluded from being liable if they fail to deduct, all other persons will be liable). The Commissioner also has the power to prosecute a person for not complying with the terms of a deduction notice under s 157A.

Detailed discussion

4. Taxpayers who are liable to pay an amount of tax to the Commissioner will have due dates for payment of those amounts. Where a due date for payment is not met, a taxpayer will have an amount that is due and payable to the Commissioner. Where there is an amount owing to the Commissioner by a taxpayer, she may take action to recover that outstanding amount. One action available to her is to require an employer, bank or other third party who is liable to pay an amount to the taxpayer to pay that amount to the Commissioner instead. This is done by sending a deduction notice to the Payer requiring that Payer to pay all or some of the amount due to the Commissioner instead of to the taxpayer.
5. The decision to take any debt collection action, including the use of a deduction notice, is made only after consideration of all relevant information, including any previous communication between the IR and the taxpayer, the amount and the age of the arrears and any known hardship or hardship likely to be experienced by the taxpayer.¹

Tax liability

6. A deduction notice can be issued when the taxpayer has an overdue tax liability. The Commissioner will not issue a deduction notice for tax arrears that are subject to an instalment arrangement between the taxpayer and the Commissioner, so long as the arrangement is being adhered to by the taxpayer.
7. Where the tax liability is in the name of the taxpayer, then an amount payable to that taxpayer which they are entitled to receive in their personal capacity may be subject to a deduction notice.
8. In some cases, a taxpayer may be liable for a tax liability that is recorded in the name of another taxpayer. For example, trustees of a trust are jointly and severally liable for the income tax liabilities of the trust². This means that the Commissioner can recover an income tax liability of the trust from a trustee and may issue a deduction notice against amounts payable to the trustee in their personal capacity.

9. Similarly, an agent may be liable for the tax liability or arrears of another taxpayer³ so that a deduction notice may be placed on an amount payable to the agent in order to satisfy the liability of the principal taxpayer.
10. In respect of a working for families tax credit debt, s MF 5(2) of the Income Tax Act 2007 (“ITA’07”) provides that both the primary caregiver and their partner or spouse throughout the income year to which the overpayment relates, are jointly and severally liable for any overpayment of Working for Families tax credits. The Commissioner may place a deduction notice on the bank accounts of the primary caregiver and/or their spouse for the income year, and any joint account held in the names of the parties.
11. In respect of GST it is noted that s 43 of the Goods and Services Tax Act 1985 only applies to amounts payable to the “registered person” and will not apply to amounts payable to a person who is jointly liable for (e.g. a partner in a partnership or trustee in respect of a trust)⁴, or is an agent in respect of (e.g. an agent carrying on the taxable activity of an absentee)⁵, the registered person’s GST liability.

Daily interest

12. A deduction notice may require deductions to be made to cover daily interest accruing on the tax liability. The interest starts on the date of the deduction notice and ends on the day on which the amount required to be deducted, has been deducted. If interest is to be calculated, the rate of interest will be advised in the deduction notice.

⁴ See Section 27(3) of the GSTA.

⁵ See Section 59(2) of the GSTA.

Amount payable

13. A deduction notice requires a 3rd party to pay an amount to the Commissioner rather than to the person to whom the amount is payable. What is an amount payable to the person is discussed below.

To the person

14. A deduction notice may be issued to a 3rd party and applied against any money payable by that third party to the taxpayer. It does not matter whether the 3rd party is paying the money to the taxpayer on their own account or as an agent for somebody else. It also does not matter if the taxpayer has appointed an agent as the recipient of the amount.⁶ Accordingly, any amount payable by a 3rd party (or their agent) to a taxpayer (or their agent) will be subject to a deduction notice issued by the Commissioner.

Amounts payable by a person on a joint account

15. A deduction notice may be placed on joint accounts when the money is able to be withdrawn from that account by the defaulting person without the signature or other authorisation of the other joint account holder(s). Note that a deduction notice can only be placed on a partnership account in respect of the partnership's liability as a taxpayer under the relevant act. A deduction notice cannot be placed on a partnership bank account to satisfy a partner's personal tax liability
16. A deduction notice will apply to money that is held in a term investment, whether or not that investment is due to mature.

Foreign currency

17. The balance of an account denominated in a foreign currency may be the subject of a deduction notice despite the currency of the account. The balance of the account

⁶ Gennaker Holdings v IRD 13 NZTC 8,154; (1991) 16 TRNZ 193

would represent an amount payable to the taxpayer in question even though not payable in New Zealand dollars.⁷

One-off and on-going deductions

18. A deduction notice may require deductions to be made either in a lump sum (one-off notice) or by instalments (on-going notice). The manner of the deduction will be specified in the notice.
19. A deduction notice will continue to apply until a deduction is made by the third party in respect of a one-off notice requiring deduction by lump sum, or in respect to an on-going notice, until the amount required pursuant to the notice has been deducted or the notice is either revoked or withdrawn by the Commissioner.
20. Note that an attachment order issued by the Court is not covered by this Statement.

Limits that can be deducted from salary and wages

21. Deduction notices issued against a taxpayer's salary and wages have limits as to the amount that may be deducted. In respect of deduction notices for all but tax liabilities due under the CSA the amount the Commissioner may require and employer to deduct is limited to the greater of:

The lesser of 10% of the tax liability or 20% of the gross salary or wages payable to the taxpayer; and $10.
22. These limits ensure a taxpayer does not have their entire salary or wage taken by the Commissioner (unless they receive a payment of $10 or less as a salary or wage).

⁷ FC of T v Resource Capital Fund IV LP 2013 ATC ¶20-422

Example 1

Kerry has an outstanding tax liability and has refused to make an arrangement with the Commissioner for the payment of that debt. Kerry's debt is $3,000 and the Commissioner's records show that Kerry has commenced receiving a wage from an employer. A deduction notice is issued to Kerry's employer requiring a deduction of the lesser of $300 (being 10% of the tax debt) or 20% of Kerry's wage.

Kerry is paid $900 and their employer withholds $180 (being 20% of the wage paid to Kerry).

Note – the same amount would be required to be deducted if the tax liability was for either of GST, gaming duty or student loan payments.

23. The Child Support Act 1991 has priority over any attachment order issued by the Courts or deduction notice issued under any other Act (including the other Inland Revenue Acts).⁸ Furthermore, a deduction for financial support due under the CSA may require an employer to deduct up to 40% under the PAYE rules of the ITA'07⁹.
24. A s 154 deduction notice for a child support debt will always take priority over a s 157 notice for other tax types. This ensures that the taxpayer will always receive at least 60% of the net payment (i.e. payment due after PAYE is withheld) due from their employer. The debt for other tax types will be dealt with separately.

Example 2*Deduction notice for financial support*

Michael has an outstanding financial support liability and has refused to make an arrangement with the Commissioner for the payment of the debt. The outstanding financial support is $3,000 when the Commissioner's records show Michael has commenced receiving a wage from an employer. A deduction notice is issued to Michael's employer requiring a deduction of the lesser of $3,000 or 40% of Michael's wage after PAYE is deducted.

Michael is paid $800 (net of PAYE) and his employer withholds $320 (being 40% of Michael's wage (net of PAYE)).

Copy of deduction notice to be sent to the taxpayer

25. The Commissioner will send a copy of the deduction notice to the taxpayer. Where the taxpayer does not have a valid address, a deduction notice may be sent to the taxpayer's last known address, unless the third party to whom the deduction notice is sent is the current employer of the taxpayer. In that case no copy of the notice needs to be sent.
26. Alternatively, the Commissioner may dispense with the requirement to send a copy of a deduction notice to a taxpayer altogether where the Commissioner has, or can find, no valid address for the taxpayer or their employer.

Revoking a deduction notice

27. The Commissioner may cancel a deduction notice by notifying the 3rd party to not make the deduction or to make a deduction for a different amount. If the taxpayer has paid their tax liability or has agreed to an arrangement with the Commissioner for the payment of their tax liability, the Commissioner will notify the 3rd party that the deduction notice is cancelled.

Withheld amounts

28. Once the 3rd party has withheld an amount pursuant to a deduction notice they hold that amount on trust for the Crown and must make payment of the amount to the Commissioner in the time provided for in the deduction notice.
29. If a 3rd party fails to pay the Commissioner an amount they have deducted they will be liable for the amount they had deducted and failed to pay to the Commissioner, who may take action to recover that amount from that 3rd party. The 3rd party may also be liable for criminal penalties for failing to account for the withheld amount.

30. On making a deduction the 3rd party must notify the taxpayer of the fact of the deduction or extraction and of the purpose for which it was made.
31. A person who makes a deduction required under a deduction notice is deemed to be acting under the authority of the taxpayer to whom the notice relates and is indemnified in respect of the deduction made.

Failure to comply with a deduction notice

32. If a 3rd party fails to make a deduction as required, the amount that was required to be deducted may be recoverable by the Commissioner who may take recovery action from the person who failed to deduct and pay the Commissioner in accordance with the notice.
33. This ability to recover amounts not withheld applies to all tax liabilities except deductions of financial support required to be made by a bank under s 154 of the CSA, in which case the bank will not be liable for financial support it fails to deduct.¹⁰
34. Where the Commissioner recovers an amount from a 3rd party who had failed to make a deduction required by a deduction notice issued to it, that 3rd party may, in turn, seek to recover that amount from the taxpayer.
35. As well as being liable for the amounts that were not deducted, a 3rd party may also be prosecuted for failing to deduct an amount and may be fined or imprisoned.
